

Board of Review Questions

Purpose of a Board of Review

After a Scout has completed the requirements for any rank or Eagle Palm, they appear before a board of review. Its purpose is to determine the quality of his experience and decide whether the Scout has fulfilled the requirements.

The members of a Board of Review should have the following objectives in mind:

- To make sure the Scout has completed all of the requirements for the rank.
- To see how good an experience the Scout is having in the unit.
- To encourage the Scout to progress further.

NOTE: Though one reason for a board of review is to help ensure the Scout did what they were supposed to do to meet the requirements, it shall become neither a retest or “examination,” nor a challenge of his knowledge. In most cases it should, instead, be a celebration of accomplishment. Remember, it is more about the journey. A badge recognizes what a young man has done toward achieving the primary goal of personal growth. It is thus more about the learning experience than it is about the specific skills learned.

This document was originally written by Ray Klaus for Saddleback District, Orange County Council (1994-1995). It has been modified by Troop 849, Pacifica District, Greater Los Angeles Council, for their use (1998). It has been further simplified in 2015. Added Eagle Rank questions in 2023.

If this is your first Board of Review

Composition

The Board of Review consists of three to six members of the Troop Committee. No more, no less.

- ❖ If fewer than three registered committee members available to serve, it is permissible to use knowledgeable parents or other adults (registered or not) who are at least 21 years of age and who understand Scouting's aims.
- ❖ Parents or guardians shall not serve on a board for their Scout.

The Process

The Scout is introduced to the board by the Chairperson of the board.

The Scout should be in full uniform with his Scout Handbook. (But neither is required.)

The Chairperson of the Board of Review should ensure that all the requirements have been "signed off" in the Scout's handbook. Additionally, the Chairperson should ensure that leadership and merit badge records are consistent with the requirements for the rank and that the dates are correct.

The board members are invited to ask questions of the Scout. The questions should be open-ended, offering an opportunity for the Scout to speak about his opinions, experiences, activities, and accomplishments.

- ❖ On the following pages are typical Board of Review questions for each rank. These questions are intended to only serve as a guide.
- ❖ Avoid questions which only require a simple one or two word answer. If an answer is too brief, follow up with a, "Why?" or, "How can that be done?" to expand the answer.
- ❖ The questions need not be restricted to Scouting topics; questions regarding home, church, school, work, athletics, etc. are all appropriate.
- ❖ Remember: it is not the point of a Board of Review to retest the Scout. However, questions like, "Where did you learn about ..." or "Why do you think it is important for a [rank] Scout to have this skill?" or "What would you do if ..." are valid.

After the Review

When all members have had an opportunity to ask their questions, the Scout is excused from the room. The board members then consider whether the Scout is ready for the next rank; the board's decision must be unanimous. Once the decision is made, the Scout is invited back into the room.

- ❖ The Chairperson informs the Scout of the board's decision.
- ❖ Assuming the Scout passes, there are general congratulations and hand shakes all around, and the Scout is encouraged to continue advancing.

Tenderfoot Rank

This is the Scout's first experience with a Board of Review. The process may require some explanation on the part of the Board of Review Chairperson.

The first few questions in the Board of Review should be simple. The Board of Review should try to gain a sense of how the Scout is fitting into the Troop, and the Scout's level of enjoyment of the Troop and patrol activities

Questions should focus on the use of the Scout skills learned for this rank, without retesting these skills. The Board of Review should try to perceive how the Scout's patrol is functioning, and how this Scout is functioning within his patrol.

By this point the Scout should be comfortable with the Board of Review process

The Scout should be praised for his accomplishment in achieving 1st Class (particularly if the Scout joined less than a year ago). In achieving the rank of 1st Class, the Scout should feel an additional sense of responsibility to the Troop and to his patrol.

The 1st Class rank will produce additional opportunities for the Scout (Order of the Arrow, leadership, etc.).

At this point, the goal is to understand the Scout's full Scouting experience, and how others can have similar meaningful Scouting experiences. Scouting principles and goals should be central to the Scout's life; look for evidence of this.

Although this is the final rank, this is not the end of the Scouting trail; "Once an Eagle, always an Eagle". Explore how this Eagle Scout will continue with Scouting activities, and continued service to his home, church, and community.
